Would you consider becoming a member of the Roanoke Valley Wrestling Association?

The Roanoke Valley Wrestling Association (known as RVWA) is a group of wrestling fans made up of former wrestlers, current and former wrestler's parents, coaches, officials and anyone that loves the sport of wrestling, the world's oldest sport. Members help promote and support wrestling in the Roanoke Valley and state of Virginia. Each year RVWA members help in raising money and awareness for scholarships to local wrestlers, recognize wrestlers for outstanding achievements both on and off the mat, hold an end of year banquet that recognizes these young men's and sometimes women's achievements in wrestling on the middle school, high school and college levels.

Many parents and fan learn the sport of wrestling better by helping with tournament by learning to keep score, time and just helping the schools conduct a superior wrestling tournament or event for the wrestlers and schools. It beats just sitting in the stands, it's one of the best seats in the gym and you become part of the wrestling family.

New members ideas and efforts will go a long way in preserving the great sport of wrestling....won't you consider becoming a member of the RVWA.

If you feel that wrestling is a sport that builds character, teaches a strong work ethic, prepares our youth to compete in life or just like to be part of the RVWA team and wrestling family. We need you in the RVWA.
